

Aliven

Extreme flexibility in schedule and destination planning saves you time and provides maximum comfort

Aliven is authorized by the Ministry of Transport in Italy to operate as an airline for the transport of passengers (License EU-OPS I-044).

Aliven offers its customers a choice of some of the most popular executive aircraft in the world, a fleet which can guarantee it's customers the highest standards of quality and safety.

Our executive flights allow you to quickly reach without stops all destinations across Europe, the Middle East and North Africa, landing at airports very close to the desired destination that are often not served by scheduled airlines.

Aliven was founded in 1984 by a group of businessmen in Veneto buying a twin-engined aircraft that initially operated from the airfield at Verona-Boscomantico mainly serving members of their own group.

By the end of the 1980's they were operating for a growing number of business clients in collaboration with a local air taxi company already licenced to provide public passenger transport.

Aliven
Via Paolo Bembo 70
Dossobuono
Verona
I-37062
Italy

Tel: +39 045 8619215
Fax: +39 045 8619214
aliven@aliven.it
www.aliven.it

In 1994, thanks to the participation of major industrial groups, the company changed its corporate structure and started the process to obtain the certification as an airline company.

Aliven now has a fleet of 9 aircraft:

- 1 x Citation I
- 2 x Citation Jet series 2
- 3 x Citation Excel XL-XLS
- 1 x Citation Excel XLS+
- 1 x Hawker 700A
- 1 x Hawker 900XP

The current structure of the Aliven is governed by European legislation and is composed of highly qualified personnel, selected for long experience working within their specific sector of expertise, we focus on professionals engaged in both the operational areas and flight. It is through this focus that Aliven has successfully established itself in the aeronautical sector with over 40,000 flight hours.

Flight safety, attention to the passenger needs and the desire to achieve maximum efficiency and effectiveness in all business processes are the top priorities of Aliven Srl.

During the flight cruise time it is possible to hold meetings and to discuss important deals in both privacy and comfort sure in the discretion of our professional crew.

ITALY